Dear Rex,

The Wrigley Company is pleased to announce the inaugural carrier recognition awards honoring the following categories: less than truckload (pool distribution), full truckload, and intermodal service. We are excited to introduce this program and pay tribute to those companies who have demonstrated excellence in performance.

The Wrigley Logistics Team would like to congratulate each winning company for their achievement, and express our appreciation for adding value to our customer service. In this spirit we will be formally honoring the 2005 winners (details to follow in a separate mailing). Recipients in each division are listed to the right.

As this program grows, we look forward to gathering your input as well as sharing our mutual talents in delivering exceptional service to our customers.

We also extend our gratitude to all of our service partners for their continued efforts each day. It is our hope that all of our providers will be recognized at some point in the future and to applaud the 2005 winners for their success.

Sincerely,

Ronald W. Zapfel
